Catch the Reading Bug!

The 2008 Summer Reading Program kicks off June 9th!

How does it work?

Children ages 3-12 may register at the Circulation Desk to receive an activity folder. Earn points by reading books, or doing fun activities listed in the folder. Redeem points at the library for free books and prizes. Also come to weekly programs at the library featuring songs, storytelling, games, and live animals. You do not need to be registered for Summer Reading to attend a program @ the library. All activities are free of charge!

Teens and Adults...don't feel left out! The Library also has a Summer Reading Program for you! Read books and listen to audiobooks to earn chances to win great prizes like free books, gift certificates, and more! Pick up a flyer at the Circulation Desk!

Book Review Corner

Mr. Darcy Takes a Wife
By Linda Berdoll

Is it an extension of a much-loved classic, or light summer reading? I think it's a little of both! Jane Austen would turn over in her grave if she read this sequel to Pride and Prejudice, but you just might enjoy the never-before-seen side of Darcy and the continuation of his romance with Elizabeth Bennet. All of your favorite characters are back, including Mrs. Bennet, Mr. Collins, and of course Wickham. And if this isn't enough to quench your thirst for more Darcy, check out the sequel to this one: Darcy & Elizabeth: Night and Days at Pemberley!
