Book Review Corner

The Grace That Keeps This World By Tom Bailey

The title of this year's One Book One Community selection has just been announced! Join us for special book-related events in October.

On the edge of the Adirondack wilderness, survival is a way of life for the Hazen family. Gary Hazen is a respected forester and hunter, known for his good instincts and meticulous planning. He and his wife, Susan, have raised their sons to appreciate the satisfaction of this difficult but honest life. In spite of this, the boys, men now, are slipping away. His older son, Gary David, is secretly dating a woman of whom his father would not approve even as Kevin, the younger boy, struggles against the limits of his family's hardscrabble lifestyle, wanting something more. On the first day of hunting season the Hazen men enter the woods, unaware that the trip they are embarking on will force them to come to terms with their differences and will forever change their lives.

This book can be found at FIC/BAI (in regular and large print), CD/FIC/BAI, and CASS/FIC/BAI.

Volunteer Profile: Bobbie Diefenderfer

Perhaps you are one of the dozens of library patrons anxiously awaiting a phone call from this volunteer. Bobbie Diefenderfer has called at least a thousand patrons over the past five years to inform them that the books, music, and videos they requested have arrived and are being held for them to check-out at the Lebanon Community Library. This library service provides the materials our patrons desire in a timely manner. The next phone call you receive from the Lebanon Community Library may be one dialed by this valuable volunteer, Bobbie Diefenderfer.
